The Girl & The Fox

While the Sun was waking from its slumber, I stared down at the blood-coated carcasses of my family's livestock – and lifeline. I could tell from the way the bodies had been ravaged that this was not an experienced killer.

Whatever was doing this was clearly quite young, and this had been the fourth consecutive day that it had happened. However, today was the first time that evidence had been left behind, a trail that led deep into the adjoining woods.
