

Most of the art around churches depict part of a story from the bible or biblical characters such as angels and Jesus and Mary.

The most common pieces of art around a church are the stain-glassed windows.

Have a look at these examples.

