

Noah worked hard. He had never made a boat before but God told him just what to do.

When it was finished Noah took his whole family inside. They made sure they had all the food they needed.

God said to Noah, 'You must take into the boat a pair of all the birds and animals I have made. You must look after them while the earth is made clean, so make sure you have the food each animal likes.'

